Volunteer Positions are described below, followed by the day and times needed. Please indicate all areas of interest and we will do our best to accommodate your preference. To be most helpful – indicate your first, second, and third choices in the boxes below.

Pre Festival Opportunities:

POSTER DISTRIBUTION: Spread the word about the Banana Festival by distributing posters and fliers to various area locations. (early August)

ADVANCED PREPARATION: Fold T-shirts, errands, or prepare vendor and volunteer mailings.

Festival Day Opportunities:

VENDOR CHECK-IN: Are you an early bird with an unflappable personality? Then this is the job for you. Using a color-coded map you will work as part of a team to direct vendors to their pre-assigned Festival locations, and then to assigned parking areas after they unload. (Saturday, Sept 29, 6 am – 10 am)

INFORMATION BOOTH/VOLUNTEER CHECK IN: Serve as an ambassador; meet & greet out-of-towners; check-in your fellow volunteers; and have a calming effect on missing children. Bilingual a plus!

GENERAL VOLUNTEER: Someone flexible where we can pre-assign as needed.

Volunteer Shifts:

For the Festival, all volunteers will be assigned to work a four-hour shift. Please note that shift times vary depending on where you are stationed (see above descriptions). To accommodate everyone's needs, please indicate all available times so we have maximum flexibility in scheduling.
